Souvenirs

Dick Groves

Dedication

We, the class of 1952, wish to dedicate our yearbook, "Souvenirs", to each and every person who made the new addition to our school possible.

Long in the future may this building foretell great success of character and knowledge.

May the spirit of co-operation that brought this building into being be manifest by the future students of BELLE CENTER HIGH SCHOOL.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty two of Belle Center High School, being of lawful age and of sound mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish, and declare this, our last will and testament.

First, to the faculty, the Senior Class wishes to leave just two words, THANK YOU, for it is only through your faithful guidance that we are now able to step into the world on our own. No matter how far we roam, we won't forget any of you.

Second, to the Juniors, our companions across the hall, we do bequeath our following treasured possessions:

Ruth Newman wills her shortness and witty ways to Jeanette McMillen.
Pat Ammons has inherited Helen Prater's long, manageable hair.
To Janice Johnston goes Betty Curtis's clarinet ability.
Caroline Phillips has willed her continuous giggle to Jim Patterson.
Annabelle Halsey's jolly disposition goes to Joann Stout.
Frank Liles has inherited Mary Lou McKirahan's ability to play the ukelele.
Joella Williams wills her seat on the bus to Max Brentlinger.
Phyllis Guthrie has inherited Madge Schultz's slick haircut.
Marylyn Doyle's piano playing ability goes to Carol Henry.
To Margaret Torrence goes Norma James's chemistry knowledge.
Barbara Patrick wills her first rate soprano voice to Shirley Swartz.
Frank Willeke wills his masculine figure to John Royer.
R. L. Murphy inherited Arthur McClure's quiet ways.
Jack Core's black curly hair to Lewis Downey.
Bill Berry wills his height to Betty Hesser.
To Ronnie Roebuck goes Russ Royer's basketball ability.
Don McMillen wills his "ways" with the girls to Jim Stout.
Bob Laughlin wills his "jitney" to Don Houchin.
Norma Torrence wills her bell lyre to Dick Baughman.
To Bonnie Rockhold goes Jim Shephard's lung power.
Nadine Lawery has inherited Bob Quay's joking ability.
John Osborn wills his loquaciousness to Anne Laughlin.
To Ariville Iott goes Jeanette Ross's daintiness.
To Russ Brown goes Jim Dysert's athletic ability.
Pete Ammon's and Judy Bazzle wills their gallantry to anyone who lacks it.

Signature: Arthur McClure, Pres.
Witness: Mary Lou McKirahan
Witness: Freda Trumbull

R. L. Murphey: I'm afraid Don McMillen will be in the hospital a long time.
Marylyn Doyle: Why, did you see the doctor?
R. L. Murphey: No, I saw the nurse.

Miss Trumbull: Name the outstanding accomplishments of the Romans.
Jim Dysert: They understood Latin.

Mother: Johnnie, put that cake away. It's only ten minutes until supper.
Johnnie Osborn: I know, Mother. I'll have it gone by then.

Mrs. Rhoades: Where is Moscow?
Mr. Sollars: In the barn with Pa's cow.

Senior Prophecy

A huge cloud is appearing over the horizon and already drops of rain are falling toward the earth. Why, it really isn't rain, it's the prophecy of the "52" Senior Class. Gather around, let's see what the raindrops have to tell us.

Ruth Newman, we find, is now head nurse at White Cross Hospital, located at the edge of Belle Center.

Norma Torrence is now secretary to the main boss at Conover Modeling Agency in New York and we hear the boss is quite a handsome fellow. Some people have all the luck.

Julia Newman has finally made it, we see, as a certain farmer's wife, and is now residing near Zanesfield.

Arthur Murray has employed Madge Schultz as a dancing instructor in his studios.

Jeanette Ross has her own radio show on W.O.H.P. in Bellefontaine. Her sponsors are the makers of TIDE.

Located in downtown Chicago we find "Jeannie's Shoppe", a stylish emporium operated by Norma James.

Jim Shepherd is now the football coach at Ohio Northern University at Ada.

Jim Dysert went into a strange profession, a tree surgeon, of all things. He specializes in "trimmin' wittle twigs".

Don McMillen has inherited a pineapple grove in Hawaii. As he has never married, he is still the great lover and wolf.

Caroline Phillips runs a laundry at New Richland. She employs her husband to deliver the clothes to the customers.

Remember Glenn Ricketts? He is now a popular professor at a high-class girls' school, and he is the only male teacher.

Now in the process of making his second million is Dean Groves, a sheep rancher in Texas.

Judy Bazzle now lives five miles out of Huntsville with her husband, one boy and three girls.

Pete Ammons is an admiral in the United States Navy and is stationed in California. He plans to make California his permanent home for his wife, four boys and two girls.

Arthur McClure seems to be well-known wherever he goes. He is climbing the ladder of fame with his boxing ability. (Just stretch your imagination and you might be able to see him as a boxer.)

Frank Willeke is in California playing the leading role in the famous movie, "Leather Stocking Tales". He plays the part of the 'Leather Stocking'.

Down in Memphis, Tennessee, Bob Laughlin owns a used car lot. He sells Model "T" Fords and has a specially built model for his personal use.

Betty Curtis is married to a millionaire and has, as her hobby, traveling around the world.

Mary Lou Patrick (McKirahan) and her husband, Bill, are managing a basketball team composed of their five sons.

Joella Williams, after working for seven years, has finally received her degree and is now eligible to teach physical education.

Michigan State boasts of it's Home Economics teacher, Marylyn Doyle.

Barbara Patrick is a beautician in Kansas where she resides with her happy family.

The girls are still going wild over Jack Core, who is now a famous grid-iron star.

Bill Berry, with his wife and four children, is living on a prosperous farm at the edge of Woodstock.

Operating a large fish cannery at the edge of Boulder Dam in Colorado we find Russ Royer and wife, Phyllis.

Milton Berle, Mr. Television, himself, has been replaced by our local comedien, Bob Quay.

John Osborn, because of his proficiency in public speaking, is now in politics, expecting to be elected Governor of Ohio.

Helen Prater has become a rootin', tootin' cowgirl in Texas. She is quite wealthy, due to the fact that rich deposits of radium have been discovered on her property.

The sun has finally succeeded in breaking through the clouds, but we hope you have enjoyed the shower.

H O M E C O M I N G

Our annual homecoming game was held September Fourteenth, 1951. Reigning throughout the game were Marylyn Doyle and her attendants.

Preceeding the game the band marched onto the field playing the National Anthem. Following this, the band escorted the queen and her court, seated in convertibles, onto the field, and formed a heart as the royal procession took their honored places on the forty-yard line.

After the performance of the band at the half time, the Queen was introduced to Ronnie Jenkins and Russ Royer, captains of the Huntsville and Belle Center teams, respectively.

Marylyn was crowned by last year's queen, Donna Minter.

National Honor Society

The Belle Center High School has been a member of the National Honor Society for the past four years. During those years the following people have become members: Donna Minter, David Brandeberry, Jean Zahler, Delores Zimmerman, Mary Lou McKirahan, and John Osborn.

As this goes to press the 1951-52 members have not been chosen.

Senior Scholarship Test

The following Seniors: Jack Core, Russ Royer, Jeanette Ross, Norma James, John Osborn, Bob Laughlin, Bob Quay, Marylyn Doyle, Arthur McClure, and Mary Lou McKirahan, took the Ohio State Scholarship Tests given at Bellefontaine on February 1, 1952. Of these ten, two placed in the first ten in the county. Arthur McClure won a first-place tie, and John Osborn placed tenth.

Senior Class Motto

God Keep Me Still Unsatisfied

It just seemed like a year ago

When I started to take my steps so slow

With pad and pencil in my hand,

I longed to be in some other land,

But now the time has come so quickly

That it makes me sad and very sickly,

But the things I learned in those twelve years

Have touched my heart, my brains and ears,

And I'll remember 'til I have died

"God keep me still unsatisfied."

By Ruth Newman

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club has become very active, with thirty-five members. It holds meetings each month in the home of one of its members. The main feature of the year is Pan-American guest night which is held in the spring.

The membership is made up of the present Spanish Class members, and also of those who have taken Spanish before.
